- 1) Debby Stinson presented about how the City of Colfax approached the idea and succeeded in creating public art in Colfax.
- 2) The Harold Balazs sculpture is now in Lawson Gardens; it's a temporary installation for the time being. Alan Davis will come to a meeting in February to request PACs recommendation to the city council.
- 3) Utility Boxes – several artists are interested and several pieces of art have been submitted.
- 4) The Commissioners watched the Open Public Meetings Act training video, which all city/ state groups have to do yearly
- 5) ArtFest: an Ad will be submitted to the "Pullman Local" publication as well as to online calendars, radio and 360. The registration forms are now available. Discussion of the budget and it was decided to again have a Beer Garden.

The meeting with the new commissioners was lively and constructive and everyone participated. At this time there were no issues pertaining to League involvement.
