The Commissioners reviewed the 5 submitted proposals by 3 artists for the mural on Spring and E Main Street to decide which ones should be forwarded to the media – Facebook, Instagram, Newspaper - for public comment. There will also be a News Release. Public comments will be accepted until February 7, with the PAC meeting to follow on February 9 to discuss and decide which submission to recommend and forward to the City Council.

The proposed murals with artists' statements are available to be viewed on the PAC Facebook page and the public is invited to comment on the proposals.
