What is League Program?

Program planning is the grassroots process of recommending and selecting governmental issues for study and agreement in reaching a position. During January and February 2022, local and state Leagues will conduct program planning and make program recommendations in a general membership meeting or a board meeting. Leagues are also asked to share information on how their work will impact the Campaign for Making Democracy Work® as well as identify LWVUS positions that they intend to use in education and lobbying. This is a hallmark of the League of Women Voters grassroots' role in study and action.

League program is the education and advocacy platform that we adopt to move our mission forward. Every two years in the months leading up to convention, Leagues around the country meet to review LWWUS program and propose issues for study or action. The League Principles and positions on public policy issues in Article XII of the LWWUS Bylaws outline the process.

Sec. 1. Principles. The Principles are concepts of government supported by the League and are the authorization for adoption of national, state and local program. They may be amended by the convention in the same way as program is adopted under Section 2 of this Article.

Sec. 2. Program. The program shall consist of action to implement the Principles and those governmental issues chosen by the convention for concerted study or concurrence and action.

During the Program Planning process, Leagues should incorporate an emphasis on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) into our work. A DEI lens is a way of examining the process as to how it is perceived by a variety of communities, voices, and perspectives, and what, if any, barriers may exist that prevent it from being equitable or inclusive of everyone. A key part of applying a DEI lens is ensuring that all members feel informed and included in program planning.

Recommended Program: The Campaign for Making Democracy Work®

The LWVUS Board recommends that Program 2022-2024 continue the Campaign for Making Democracy Work® with Leagues throughout the country working on:

- Voting Rights
- Improving Elections
- Money in Politics
- Redistricting

At Convention 2020, delegates voted to support a program that would fully utilize core League positions around Voting Rights and Election Reform. The campaign for Making Democracy Work® – includes ensuring a free, fair, and accessible electoral system for all eligible voters. Leagues at every level continue to work to protect and advance voting rights and election reform at this critical time for our democracy, as well as fight efforts in Washington, D.C. and state legislatures to suppress voters.

At the same time, the League of Women Voters continues our transformational journey to strengthen the organization while also engaging new and future activists around the League's core issues. As we look to achieve our transformational goals around relevance, impact, focus and culture, we also look to the priority issues that are at the heart of the League's mission.

Accomplishments of the Campaign for Making Democracy Work®

As part of the Campaign for Making Democracy Work®, the League has continued to focus on a major campaign to protect and enforce voting rights, Since July 2020, LWVUS lobbied the White House and Congress, sending 22 action emails to our network of grassroots activists on voter suppression tactics as well as supporting legislation like the Freedom to Vote Act and the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act. These also include action alerts on DC Statehood, Healthcare Reform, and the Equal Rights Amendment.

These efforts resulted in 226,118 letters to Congress, and over 14,398 contacts with the Executive Branch of government. Through our outreach we were able to engage over 95,193 new activists.

In the 117th Congress, the LWVUS continued its major lobbying campaign in support of the For the People Act and the Freedom to Vote Act as well as the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act. The LWVUS staff, grassroots membership, and LWVUS Lobby Corps contacted their representatives and senators in support of legislation. LWVUS President Dr. Deborah Turner and LWVUS CEO Virginia Kase Solomón joined by Leagues across the country participated in days of action at the White House and on Capitol Hill to showcase the need for passage of legislation to strengthen voting rights now.

The Freedom to Vote Act and the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act will:

- Set standards for voting across the country; address the historical barriers to voting;
- Provide oversight on voting rights violations;
- Hold states and bad actors accountable; and
- Create a democracy that is representative of all Americans.

In August 2021, the LWVUS submitted a statement to the US House Judiciary Committee hearing on the Oversight of the Voting Rights Act: Potential Legislative Reforms. The hearing documents will be used to send a report to the US Senate on the continued need for the Voting Rights Act.

The For the People Act passed the House of Representatives and did not successfully achieve the 60-vote threshold to move forward in all three votes in the Senate. At the time of the writing of this report, the Freedom to Vote Act is scheduled for its first procedural vote, but will need to overcome the filibuster in order to pass out of the Senate and head to the House.

In voting rights litigation, state Leagues and LWVUS continue to play a leadership role by mounting judicial challenges to state laws designed to make it harder for people to vote. LWVUS and state Leagues actively opposed voter photo ID laws, advocated against barriers to the voter registration process, worked to prevent last-minute Election Day obstacles, and helped millions of voters get the information and any required documentation they need to vote.

In September 2019, the League officially launched our People Powered Fair Maps Initiative, uniting the Leagues of all 50 states and the District of Columbia together for a coordinated national organizing and education effort to end partisan gerrymandering through ballot initiatives, legislative and constitutional fixes, and work to create district maps that are fair and reflective of the communities they serve.

The LWVUS has also supported full funding for the census. The League was an official partner with the U.S. Census Bureau and worked with partners to get the best count available in as many underrepresented communities as possible.

As redistricting came under way following the release of data in August 2021, Leagues jumped into action to get information to voters and communities to participate in the redistricting process. With the COVID-19 pandemic still impacting the world, some Leagues worked to safely hold virtual redistricting shadow hearings, virtual testimony-writing "parties," and worked to apply pressure in states where the redistricting governing body fell short of being as inclusive as possible in the redistricting process. Leagues have reported monthly on their progress and in Spring 2022, the LWVUS will release an impact report outlining our success in this national effort.

In addition, the League continues to do litigation work relevant to the Making Democracy Work® campaign. The 2020 election led to the League's busiest litigation year with 77 cases filed in 37 states all to increase voter access, encourage greater voter participation leading to protecting more than 25 million voters. Between July and October 2021, the League has filed 5 cases challenging anti-voter laws around the country, 3 cases to further redistricting reform, 2 money in politics cases, and more than a dozen cases dealing with other critical issues relating to voter protection and access. Because of the tremendous growth of the litigation portfolio of Leagues across the country, LWVUS is launching the first-ever legal center in winter of 2021, to make it easier for Leagues and the public to keep abreast of the work being done across the country.

Finally, Leagues around the country have played leadership roles in their communities, legislatures, and courts in all aspects of Making Democracy Work®. At the local, state, and federal level, our work on voter protection and mobilization, election reform, money in politics and redistricting is at the heart of the League's mission and its future.

2022 and Beyond

As we look to the future, our programmatic work is more important now than ever. Local and state Leagues and the LWVUS have made progress in the campaign for Making Democracy Work® but our work is not finished. The League continues to be up to the challenge to advance these priorities.
